In French class last Friday some of the pupils dramatized part of the story they are reading. This skit was applauded so heartily by the rest of the class that the cast is planning to give a similar performance in assembly.

Junior Community Club.

The regular meeting of the Junior Community Club was held at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday evening, February 24.

We had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Snyder, who is chairman of the Juniors in the Southeastern district. She spoke to us about Club Institute and the plans to hold one in the early spring. Plans are also being made for another Junior Rally in the fall. The girls certainly enjoyed hearing Mrs. Snyder and we hope she will come out again.

There was plenty of business to discuss, among which was our play. We expect to present it to the public April 4, at Elm Hall. It is a nautical play called "Billy. Further details will be given later. All Junior girls are urged to turn out next Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. for try-outs for the play.

Here is another item of interest to card players. The Juniors are giving a card party Saturday afternoon, March 28, at the Y. M. C. A. The price is only 50 cents and there will be a prize for each table.

Record Crowd Sees Fashion Show

Girl Scouts Presented Entertainment Saturday

Last Saturday night, those who were fortunate enough to push themselves inside the crowded doors of Elm Hall, witnessed one of the most delightfully charming spectacles ever produced in Narberth. Not only was it a captivatingly beautiful exhibition, but purely an original one being arranged and staged by the former Misses Haws, Mrs. John Nash and Mrs. Arthur Cooke. Now every one agrees that those who missed seeing the Girl Scout show this year certainly missed something great and for the benefit of them we will just enumerate a few of the very attractive acts so you will be sure to get your tickets early the next time the Girl Scouts take the stage.

Well, the first thing on the program was a little newsboy, impersonated by Helen Louise Thomas, advertising the Fashion Show as well as "Our Town" and playing her harmonica. She just jumped down from the run-way in time to let the curtain rise on "The Old Fashioned Girl, Ella Ross and Evelyn Jefferies as the new fashioned girl. They tried to help you decide which you would pick, but most of the audience came away uncertain as to which of the two was more charming.

The beginning of the Fashion display was the exhibition of children's clothes. Here some displayed boys' costumes and some little girls' frocks, while others modeled coats and hats. Carrie Louise Douglass, as the balloon man, simply carried away the audience and when it comes to "Yes, we have no bananas" well, she's all right.

The exhibition of sports clothes followed and when the girls came out on the run-way, one at a time any on-looker would think it an entirely different set of girls from the ones seen in the last act. They simply transformed from children to grown ladies and modeled sport dresses, coats, etc.

When the pianist struck up "Tea for Two" and Marion Henry and Ruth Cooke came forward and sang and danced to the popular tune everyone was astounded, but when the little chorus of maids in caps and aprons appeared the roof all but came right off Elm Hall.

Following the display of afternoon costumes Evelyn Jefferies and Virginia Douglass, as two little girls in blue, just showed you how to "Follow the Swallows" and when the curtain fell on the First Act it left everyone gasping to see what was to be next.

Act 2 opened with Mary MacIntosh as "Little Red Riding Hood" and she was enveloped in a "big Fur Coat," by "Wonderful Dad," who was none else than Marion Cooke. Here a chorus jazzed in and made "Wonderful Dad" one of the "Wonderful Hits" of the show.

The modeling of evening gowns and coats followed and truly it was well said that such beauties in such charming costumes are rarely seen in Narberth. But somehow they were all here this night and those girls surely did show off the clothes

Narberth Boy Scouts Honored.

At the official opening of the Sesquicentennial, held at Independence Hall last Monday, five Narberth Scouts were invited by Major J. M. Thomas to take part in the exercises.

Mayor Kendrick and Mrs. Kendrick, with Col. Collier, head of the Sesqui Commission, were photographed by Earl C. Roper, of Narberth, in Independence Hall with the following boys from Narberth: Edwin T. Wolf, Jay Thomas, Eugene Claghorn, Howard Wilson, James Crist and Randolph Keim.

During the exercises the local boys placed chairs for the committee and distributed buttons.

So that no misunderstanding may arise among the Boy Scouts as to the selection of those for the above exercises the committee has stated that the matter was decided very hurriedly the night before the trip and Major Thomas selected the names of boys who were known to him.

Wonderful Record Shown In B. and L. Report

Narberth Association to Open New Series of Stock Next Thursday Night

The Narberth Building and Loan Association has just completed its eighteenth year and has matured 16 series during the 18 years.

From the annual report it will be noticed that it has assets of nearly $800,000 and that its rate of gain is 8 48-100 per cent. The receipts from dues each month amount to over $13,000, with 8733 shares of stock outstanding in the long term series, and 2287 shares of stock outstanding in the short term series.

From the annual report it will be seen that even with the large amount received each month from dues it is necessary to borrow money from the banks in order to complete its loans, showing that it needs additional stockholders in order to furnish money to loan on mortgages that are gilt edge in every way.

The annual report shows stockholders in arrears for dues, interest, fines and premiums. This is caused by people forgetting to pay their dues on the night of the meeting and consequently having fines to pay on the next meeting night. These arrears are perfectly secured, as if they are on free stock, when the fines equal the withdrawal value of the stock the stockholder is closed out and there can be no loss, and if the arrears are on account of mortgages, when they are three months overdue, the solicitor notifies them of the fact and if they do not pay promptly the mortgage can be foreclosed, so that the only way the Building and Loan Association can have a loss would be if the foreclosure under the mortgage would not produce enough to pay the arrears, the amount of the mortgage and the fines and interest. The properties securing the funds loaned by the association have been so carefully looked into that in the 18 years of its existence the Narberth Building and Loan Association has never lost a dollar from properties on which it has loaned money.

On Thursday evening, March 5, from 7.30 until 9 o'clock the directors of the association will be at Borough Hall on Forest avenue to receive subscriptions for the new thirty-ninth series, which will open at that time.

Stock in the long term series will be issued on the payment of an entrance fee of 25 cents a share, which will make the first monthly payment $1.25 a share, and the monthly payments thereafter will be $1.00 a share, and these long term series will mature in about 136 months, or 11 years and 4 months.

Stock in the short term series can be taken out at the same time. The entrance fee is the same as in the long term series, or 25 cents a share, but the dues are $2 a month per share, so that the first monthly payment will be $2.25 a share, and each monthly payment thereafter will be $2 a share, and these short term series mature in about six years and a half.

The maturing of the stock is entirely governed by two factors. When the amount of dues paid in added to the profits per share equal $200 per share, the stock matures, and checks are promptly mailed to the stockholders covering their holdings.

In the case of the stockholder who has been carrying a mortgage when the profits added to the dues he has paid equals $200 a share, his mortgage is satisfied and cancelled.

Most of the stockholders who have been in the association long enough to have had some of their series mature, have felt when they received their check that it was like receiving a Christmas present or gift from some one, as the feeling seems to be that the payment each month of your building and loan is in the nature of a necessary monthly expense, and you do not realize that you are saving this money until it is handed to you in a lump sum, or else on the receipt of your cancelled mortgage.

In order to make this new thirty-ninth series the largest one ever issued by the association, stockholders are cordially invited to become members and any of the directors or officers whose names appear under the annual report will be glad to explain the building and loan idea and arrange for your requirements in the new series.

Are You Interested in Caves?

If so, come to the Community Club meeting on Tuesday, March 3, and hear Mrs. Joseph Bohan tell of adventures in cave hunting. Mrs. Bohan is an archaeologist and talked before the club a year or so ago about treasure hunting in the clay banks of Greece. She is a fluent and interesting speaker and relates her personal experiences. There will be a musical selection on the program. Members are asked to remember to bring suggestions for a State flower.

It has been necessary to change the dates of the Club Carnival to April 24 and 25, one week later than the dates previously announced. The chairman, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, hopes for the co-operation of every club member. This will be the third carnival. Make it the biggest and best. Swell the Building Fund.

ARTHUR EUGENE CRUMAN

Arthur Eugene Cruman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Cruman, of 238 Iona avenue, died early Tuesday morning in the University Hospital following an operation for appendicitis. He was 18 years of age.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the parlors of Oliver H. Baer, 1820 Chestnut street.

Baseball in the Air.

Narberth baseball fans are looking forward to an early meeting to organize the club for the coming season.

Plans are under way in the Main Line League for an eight-club circuit with possibly two games a week instead of one. The second contest would be a twilight game.

FATHERS' ASSOCIATION

Promising Speakers at the Next Meeting.

A rare treat is promised those who attend the next meeting of the Fathers' Association, which is scheduled for Wednesday night, at the Scout House, at Essex and Elmwood avenue.

Lou Young, the coach of the University of Pennsylvania football team and Lt. Commander Van Auker, both well-known residents of Narberth will be there and any father or good friend of the boys of this borough will find an evening well spent if he puts in an appearance.

Commander Van Auker, as most people know is a corking good speaker and when his subject has any relation to the welfare of the youngsters it's liable to be particularly entertaining. He has some good ideas packed away and with an interested audience he is sure to score.

What's more, he never considers that he has got anywhere unless he is bombarded with questions. Like all good sailors—he's a fighter and he never works quite so well as when he's heckled. So come on over and start the ball rolling.

Of course all of this doesn't mean that we are expecting a battle. It does mean that when once the doughty Commander plants his feet, he is liable to say something and stick to what he says.

The Boy Scouts know what sort of a talk he can give, but he has a somewhat different message for the daddies.

Lou Young needs no introduction either. Whether you go out and root for Penn or some other institution of higher athletics makes no difference.

Over Two Hundred at Banquet

Narberth Firemen Honored Monday Night

Two hundred and ten were present at the testimonial banquet given Monday night to the active members of the Narberth Fire Company. The affair was held at Borough (nee Elm) Hall.

Burgess Carl B. Metzger was toastmaster. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Milton E. McLinn, of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. Mr. Tristan B. duMarais, president of the company, spoke, giving the history of the organization since its inception eight years ago.

Nearly a score of the active members of the Bala-Cynwyd fire company were on hand for the purpose of aiding in the interment of the hatchet which has figured in the relations between the two companies.

President George M. Painter, of the Cynwyd company was among the speakers. Mr. Painter, who is an old-timer, told much of the early history of the section. Few of those present had realized before that Narberth boasted a thousand-room hotel during the Centennial. This was located on the south side, just west of the Baptist Church, and was one of the biggest hostilities of the exposition.

Mr. Painter also told of some of the early history of this part of the country, ever and anon taking a veiled dig at the borough pyrophagons.

Peter C. Hess, township commissioner and assistant chief of the twin-cities aggregation, was also on the speakers' list. He stressed intercompany co-operation.

Chief Charles V. Noel, of the Narberth company, made a pleasing address, in which he praised the work of his men, and the spirit shown by the organization. He introduced each man to the gathering by name.

The volunteers have been taking lessons in fire-fighting from Lieut. Reed, of the Philadelphia department. He was present and was called upon for a talk.

The promise of lower fire insurance rates for Narberth was included in the address of Mr. Thomas F. Dwyer, engineer of the Philadelphia Suburban Underwriters. Mr. Dwyer stated that Narberth had done a remarkable piece of work in bringing the borough up to a high fire-preventive and fire-fighting plane, and that the results would be reflected in the insurable rating.

A new survey of the town would be made in the spring, he stated, and at that time it was probable that Narberth's rates would be materially reduced.

Captain James I. Donaghy, of the Lower Merion police force, expressed the hope that the entire Main Line fire-fighting system would some day be consolidated. He believes that when the new township building is completed it will be possible to install a central fire-reporting system with a competent man at all times ready to receive alarms and relay them to the proper company. Such a plan, he believes, would minimize inter-department jealousies and would speed up the entire district.

A telegram was received from Senator Stites to the effect that a session of the Senate would preclude his attendance, but he sent his best wishes.

The final speech of the evening was made by Mr. John J. Cabrey, and was delivered as only Mr. Cabrey can. He praised the spirit shown and the expression of community good-will toward the firemen.

After All-Night Parkers.

Burgess Carl B. Metzger held Court at Borough Hall Tuesday night, when a number of car owners were brought before him for parking their cars on the streets all night.

He administered a lecture on borough laws and released them with a warning. Police have counted nearly a hundred cars on the streets in a single night.

BACK AGAIN

This week "Our Town" presents the story of the Narberth Building and Loan Association, together with information as to its forthcoming issuance of a new series of stock.

For many years this paper has backed building and loan activities in the borough, for our two associations are noted for their strength and earning power, and have been significant factors in the up-building of the community.

Their money is invested in local homes, and the greater part of the stockholders are Narberth people. Such a civic undertaking deserves support, and justifies that support by the unusually large return offered on the money invested.

Read well the articles and the advertisement in this issue. The ideas presented are more than worthy of assimilation.

A NARBERTH INVESTMENT

On the first of February we balanced the books of "Our Town" and discovered that during the previous month our six-page editions had run us below our quota of weekly income.

To balance the deficit the paper was unmercifully "cramped" with ads for three weeks in February. In order to take care of the church and club activities, the "Fireside" went by the board temporarily and some lean issues were the result.

The editor was the target of many baleful glances and pointed remarks. "We want our 'Fireside,'" sang the populace.

So here we are again with a larger and a real personal column. It is hoped that larger issues may be published with greater regularity, as local news demands makes necessary the increase. Material suitable for the "Fireside" will be gladly received, together with suggestions from our readers, who now aggregate by far the greatest number in the paper's history.

BOY SCOUT DRIVE

Not Bringing in the Desired Amount of Money.

Well, there was a wild scramble to be among the first subscribers to the Boy Scout Fund. The post marks would indicate that John Stewart and A. J. Malochleb were tied for first honors. Second place was a triple tie with C. A. Peeney, J. C. Keenan and Adelizzi Brothers interlocked. Then along came C. Franklin Brisben by his lonesome for third place.

Yes, there was a mad, mad scramble to head the list; but then it lost its madness. True, some money has been coming in; but nowhere near enough. The Troop Committee explained to many of the good people hereabouts that the small sum of $450.00 is needed to pay the interest on a $4000 mortgage and to cover other running expenses for this year. $450.00 isn't much, you'll all agree. No, not even when you add the ciphers for the cents.

Four hundred and fifty dollars is all that is asked to keep your boys off the streets and to start them along the road to good citizenship. And if these boys weren't the sort of good Scouts that they are, think how short a time it would take them to smash $450.00 worth of windows or to indulge in other youthful but rather expensive pranks.

Four hundred and fifty dollars is but a mite for a community like Narberth to subscribe. Why, it wasn't so very long ago that this community, not nearly as rich and prosperous then as now, subscribed close to $40,000 for the Y. M. C. A. That's a sum that we don't need to add the cents to make it look like something.

Folks, at last Monday's meeting there were 60 in attendance, all enrolled Scouts. Sixty at the little Log Cabin; and that same little old L. C. is only supposed to hold 20. That sounds as if the boys have the right sort of enthusiasm, doesn't it? They have it, all right and lots of it. But they need a little more than their own enthusiasm to carry them along. They need a good Scout Master. And they have an Ace in Art Cooke. He works hard with this outfit; and he is putting everything he has into his work. And good as these Scouts are, every one of them, a gang of 60 real live boys is no Sunday school class for a man to handle.

Then they need a couple of assistant Scout Masters; and if ever you want to see a pair of real ones, we would like you to watch Ather-ton Lane and I. N. Wilson at work. Every Monday night they are there backing up Art Cooke. Wilson who likes hard work is also developing other candidates for Scout Master's jobs in a Scout Masters' Troop, which he has organized. The Narberth Troop is growing rapidly and some of the old Eagle Scouts are back studying with Mr. Wilson, so that they will qualify as Scout Masters by the time Art Cooke needs some additional help. And it won't be long before that day dawns. Large as the troop is at the present time, there is a constantly growing list of candidates for Tenderfoot honors. That means new troops in addition to enthusiasm and leadership they need a good Troop Committee. And there is a group of your fellow-townsmen, doing their darndest to serve the boys in that capacity. All this is mentioned to let you know that enthusiastic as the Boy Scouts of Narberth are for Scouting, they cannot go ahead on enthusiasm alone. No matter how efficient their Scout Masters are, they cannot carry on without the support of the borough and of the individual. 1200 letters were mailed to the citizens of Narberth and the results have been exceedingly disappointing to-date. Possibly there are a number of people who have not been invited to subscribe. The letters were sent, generally, to those residents who are listed in the telephone book. The Committee, we are sure will not feel a bit hurt if subscriptions come in from people who have not been solicited.

It is a pity that all of Narberth could not have been present at Valley Forge, last Saturday. Scout Master Cooke led our boys to the train, all rigged up for a good seven-mile hike. De-training at Devon they tramped the seven miles, to attend

UNSAFE SAVING

There are many people who try to "save doctors' bills" by the use of this or that so-called medicine. And the sad part of it is that very often such medicines are sold at high prices—the bottle frequently being the most expensive part of the whole outfit. Instead of the supposed condition being helped it may be aggravated so that the last state is far worse than the first.

The wise plan—and the least costly one—is to place one's self in the care of a physician and follow his advice implicitly. And when prescriptions are given see that the medicines are prepared at Howard's—where prescription work is a science, not a "side line."

BUILDING AND LOAN
A CHEAPER MORTGAGE

Lessens Cost of Purchasing Home Substantially.

Profits which accrue to the holders of building association shares who have taken them out as a means of saving have been written about considerably, but there hasn't been very much written about those who have mortgages in an association, and it is not generally known that those who borrow on mortgages derive the same amount of profits as those who carry free shares.

One who subscribes for five shares of stock pays $5 per month for about 136 months, or $680 and receives $1000 (the maturity value of five shares), showing a profit of $320.

One who borrows $1000 (the loan value of five shares), will pay $10 per month for 136 months, or $1360 by that amount leaving $680 cancelled. But of the $1360, $680 is for the use of the $1000 for 136 months, so we must reduce the $1360 by that amount, leaving $680 to equal the dues paid and which cancels a mortgage of $1000, or giving him a profit of $320, the same as the one who carried free shares.

It is advantageous in more ways than one to have a mortgage with a building association rather than with a trust company or individual. In the first place it is cheaper, as the following comparison will show:

A mortgage of $1000 held by a trust company or individual will cost $60 per year for 11-13 years or	$ 680.00
And you will still owe	1,000.00
	$1,680.00

A building association mortgage of $1000 will cost $120 per year for 11-13 years or $1,360.00
And your mortgage will be cancelled showing a net saving of ..$ 320.00

Another great feature of a building association mortgage is that no matter what financial stringency may arise your mortgage cannot be called as long as you comply with the rules and regulations of the association as to the payment of dues, interest, etc.

A mortgage held by a trust company or an individual is drawn for a term of years, usually either three or five years, and can be called at any interest period after the expiration of its term, and you will then either have to pay it off, replace the mortgage with another party and pay all expenses attached to drawing the new papers or may be compelled to pay a bonus to have the old mortgage continued or to get a new one.

NINE REASONS

For Building and Loan Investment.

One of the oldest stockholders in the Narberth Building and Loan Association, when he was asked what good reason he could give for anyone becoming a stockholder and taking out shares in a building association, replied about as follows:

I can think of nine reasons that will fit nearly anyone's case and would list them about as follows:

1. To finance the acquisition of a home.
2. To provide in advance a fund for the acquisition of a home.
3. To save money systematically.
4. To lay away savings which may be borrowed on when need arises.
5. To save small amounts regularly to be permanently invested when the stock matures.
6. To encourage thrift in children or persons who fritter away money which might be accumulated.
7. To provide a fund for the education of children.
8. To provide a fund to be available when a child comes of age.
9. To accumulate a fund for support in old age.

He said that you must not look on building and loan association savings as money tied up, as it is a liquid asset and can be withdrawn or borrowed on at a few days' notice, and when it is considered that the earnings are about 8 1/2 per cent. secured by property which you see every day, it is about as good an investment as anyone can get.

He also said that the ideal way to take building and loan stock was a little each year, so that after it starts to mature you will have a steady income as long as you keep taking the new series.

CORNERSTONE LAID FOR NEW
L. M. BUILDING

Cynwyd Commissioner Officially at Ceremony.

The cornerstone for the new township building in Ardmore was laid Wednesday afternoon. Members of the Township Commission and a large number of citizens from Ardmore and other parts of Lower Merion witnessed the ceremonies. Commissioner Frank H. Sykes, of Cynwyd, delivered the dedication.

The laying of the cornerstone marked the last of a series of advancements by the township fathers. Back in 1906 when they entered the second-story rooms of what then was called the Mahan Building, at 21 West Lancaster avenue, there seemed to be sufficient room for all.

Comparatively speaking, only a few years had passed when they purchased the old Warner estate, with what was at that time deemed sufficient for many years, but the township failed to stop growing and a more commodious building was sought. After several years of negotiations, the commissioners finally decided to erect on the present site on East Lancaster avenue opposite Simpson road.

The building which is being built is of Indian limestone and will be three stories high. The first and second floors have been assigned to the various departments, which will include the township treasurer's offices, leaving the third floor for future developments, although it will be used for draughting purposes of the Highway Department. In the basement large vaults will be placed and township records kept. This, without a doubt, will make one of the most up-to-date municipal buildings outside of the larger cities.

Musical Service at St. John's.

The regular monthly musical service was held at St. John's Church last Sunday afternoon. It was conducted by Mr. Harry C. Tily, 2d, in the absence of his father, Dr. Herbert J. Tily.

NORRISTOWN TRIMS L. M.
IN LAST LEAGUE GAME

Ardmorites Finish Season This Week.

Norristown High closed her second championship Suburban League season Friday evening with a brilliant 41-28 victory over Lower Merion High at Norristown before a capacity crowd of rabid fans. The game, which was the last league scrap for both schools, was fast and featured by several bits of clever play from both teams.

The Lower Merion team threatened on several occasions and on the whole played a better game than they did in their own back lot at Ardmore in the first game of the two played between the teams. In the first half they kept the fans in a constant uproar as they alternated the lead with the Blue and White, and only a brilliant rally at the close of the half gave the Rhotonites the 15-9 lead at that time. In the second 20 minutes of play, the Norristown outfit stepped out considerably and rapidly widened the margin between the teams.

Episcopal Academy sprung a surprise Tuesday afternoon when it vanquished the Greigsonites by a 28 to 24 count. The score at half time was 20 to 11 in favor of Lower Merion.

Lower Merion lost the game through overconfidence and lack of fight in the second stanza. Gilfillan and Faulk, both absent from the line-up, were much missed.

DR. EUGENE STADELMAN

Member of Old Bala Family Dies in Mexico.

Dr. Eugene Stadelman, formerly of Bala, died of heart disease last Sunday at Cananea, State of Sonora, Mexico. He was a son of the late Jacob Latch Stadelman and Henriette Leech Stadelman, and was a member of an old family in this section.

Dr. Stadelman was born August 12, 1872, on a farm at Old York road and City Line avenue, Bala, that had been in his family's possession for more than 200 years. A map bearing the date 1753, now in Independence Hall, shows the location of the farm and bears the name of one of his ancestors.

Faulk Is Likely Captain For Next Year's L. M. H. S. Basketball Team

Eight Will Possibly Receive Letters

Jimmy Faulk, scrappy forward of Lower Merion High basketball team, will possibly be elected captain of the quintet for next year if his physical condition permits. He is regarded as the logical candidate for the 1925-26 leadership and inasmuch as Alpha Phi will have five of the probable eight letter men, his selection should be assured.

The only likely obstacle to his election is his health. "Jeems" was recently ordered from the squad because it was found that he had developed an "athletic heart," which doctors feared would result fatally if he were allowed to continue playing without a rest. Should the heart trouble allow of his return to the team next year it is possible he will be given the captaincy.

If Faulk should be forbidden to play, the selection of next season's leader is likely to become a more difficult matter. In that event Morris and Ruddick are being mentioned as eligible.

The Lower Merion five finished its season this week. The men who will be granted their letters will possibly be announced next week. Shortly after elections for next year will be held.

The likely letter men are Captain Robert Gilfillan, Jimmy Faulk, Dave Bevan, Howard Morris, Paul Scull, Ronald Ruddick, Albert Kohlas and Dick Reinhold.

Four of these men, all regulars on this year's quintet, will be lost through graduation. Those who will receive their diplomas in June are Captain Gilfillan, Scull, Reinhold and Bevan.

EPISCOPAL ACADEMY NEWS

Episcopal Wins Twice.

By Walter L. Tillman.

Episcopal won an exciting game from Chestnut Hill last Friday by the score of 21-20. It was an Interacademic League contest and the victory enabled the churchmen to keep joint hold on second place with St. Luke's, which easily humbled Penn Charter.

The play was close throughout and in the last second of play Heller, the Hiller's snappy forward, was fouled, with the score 21-20 against his team. Spectators rushed on the court thinking the game was over but Referee Barfoot cleared the floor, and Heller toed the mark with a possible victory or defeat depending on his throw. The ball hit the rim, and amidst a dead silence, rolled around and out, giving Episcopal a one-point win.

Chestnut Hill got the jump at the start of the game securing two field goals before the Churchmen registered a point. The score mounted to 9-2 with the Hillers leading, and then to 10-5 with only four minutes remaining in the period. In these four minutes Episcopal staged a remarkable rally and with three successive field goals sandwiched in with a foul, emerged at half-time with a 12-10 lead.

During the final session the guarding became closer and points became scarce. With five minutes to go Episcopal, on a field goal by Andrews, jumped to a 19-15 advantage. Another twin-counter by Chestnut Hill made the score read 21-18 with a minute remaining. Heller then scored on a long toss, setting the stage for the happenings in the last second of play.

Jimmy Andrews was the outstanding star for the winners with 11 of his teams 21 points. Heller was Chestnut Hill's mainstay in both scoring and floor work.

On the Tuesday preceding the Chestnut Hill game Episcopal easily defeated Montgomery, 46 to 16.

Coach Brinton sent in every player on his second team and every combination tried worked well. McMullen, one of the few regulars in the contest, led in the scoring with six field goals.

The score at half-time was 23-5.

In a preliminary to the Chestnut Hill game, the Episcopal reserves defeated the Chestnut Hill reserves, 16-14.

COUNTY BOY SCOUTS SEE VALLEY FORGE

Make Annual Pilgrimage on Eve of Washington's Birthday.

The annual pilgrimage to Valley Forge was made Saturday by more than 2000 Boy Scouts from the councils of Montgomery and Delaware counties. Local troops were represented.

The boys, representing 65 troops, left their special train at Port Kennedy and hiked to the old cabin at the rear of the Valley Forge Memorial Chapel under leadership of J. W. Patton, deputy scout executive.

They were addressed by the Rev. W. Herbert Burk, pastor and founder of the Washington Memorial Church of Valley Forge. Washington's own ideas and ideals for character-building are fostered in the scout movement, Dr. Burk declared, urging his young audience to study Washington as an outstanding example of American manhood.

The Penn bowl fight was staged, with the Main Line district getting the most hands on the rim of the bowl.

Chief Strong Wolf, who lives in Narberth, a full-blooded Ojibway Indian, showed the Scouts something original in the way of an Indian war dance in the afternoon. He also exhibited his skill with the bow and arrow, and told a series of stories about pioneer heroes.

The latter part of the observance was taken up with historical hikes over all parts of the reserve. Guides accompanied the boys on these trips, pointing out all the interesting points as well as explaining the significance of numerous marks and signs along the woody thickets.

The outing was similar to the ones staged by the scouts of the two counties for the last decade. When the first pilgrimage was taken, only about 100 scouts turned out. This number has increased yearly, and last year it was estimated that more than 1900 boys had made the trip.

Save Your Shoes—

Look over the shoes in your home. Bring them in for repairs—have the old pair fixed up. If possible keep an extra pair on hand all the time. It is a good plan to change often, for this rests the feet, helps the feet to keep well, prolongs the life of the shoe.

enjoy the sort of a talk he can give and every daddy in Narberth takes off his hat to the man who can develop a team like old Penn's.

Whichever proves mightier, the Penn or the sword makes little difference. There will be at least two good talks that night.

Of course some part of the evening will be devoted to business and there may be at least one interesting remark by the President, Mr. Henry Fry. But business we are assured will not interfere with the rest of the evening.

As has been said before, it is not necessary to be a father to belong to the Fathers' Association. If you only have hopes you are still eligible. The main thing wanted is your interest and support.

The Boy Scouts have shown us how 60 of their number can meet in the little Scout House, so come on over and bring a friend.

Eight o'clock is the time, Wednesday the day. Come early.

BOY SCOUT DRIVE

the annual exercises. After patriotic songs, all the troops of Delaware and Montgomery counties, with their colors massed, were addressed by the Rev. W. Herbert Burk, rector of the Valley Forge Memorial Church. In these sacred surroundings among the hills of the Schuylkill, where Washington and his devoted army suffered so that this nation might live, the young manhood of the two counties, could not fail to be impressed and inspired. Our old friend Chief Strong Wolf, an Eagle Scout himself later entertained with Indian dances; and then came the Penn Bowl fight, an annual fixture. The Main Line Division, with the help of Narberth carried off the final honors. And the eats—oh boy! They were good. Then the hike back to Devon and home. A sight worth seeing. We are wondering whether the $450.00 would have come in any faster if all of Narberth could have been at Valley Forge last Saturday. Somehow, we feel that the total would have been $4000.00 in that case. It isn't necessary however to go to Valley Forge to get inspiration for a worth while "good deed." Look in at the boys on Monday night. We feel sure that having done that you will dig down deep and subscribe for the Narberth Troops, as you have never done before. It's only $450.00 that the Committee is asking for; but you can rest assured that the troop needs every cent of it; and that your subscription will be money well invested.

Let's see if we can't over-subscribe by this time next week. Send it by check, money order, postage stamps and currency, any way you like. Send it today.

Invest in the boys of Narberth. Mail your subscriptions to Edwin T. Walt, Treasurer, Narberth Boy Scouts, Narberth, Pa.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS

Basketball.

The Ardmore Y. M. C. A. basketball team defeated the Lansdowne All-Stars last night in a decidedly one-side game by a 45-15 score. The "Y" team boasts of a clean record thus far in the season and it is believed that it will take a very good team of equal speed and better defense to beat the local quintet.

The defeated team last night was composed of former Lansdowne High School stars and they put up a good hard game but they could not break through the defense of the tall, rangy Dr. Yocum and Malcolm Bartlett, and above all they could not hold down the fast-working forwards the "Y" team boasts of, as Stillwagon and Speirs and Ruddick played a great game.

This Saturday night the local team will play West Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. team here. The West Building has a very good team and it is hoped that a good crowd will turn out to see the local team in action.

BOWLING

Second Half of Season Ends in Tie.

The Presbyterian Jr. team, of the Inter-Church Bowling League, by taking one game from the Baptists on Monday night, February 23, prevented the latter team from ending the second half of the season in undisputed possession of first place in the percentage column. The Baptists and Presbyterian Srs. are now tie for first place and a roll-off match will be played on Friday evening, February 27. The Presbyterian Srs. won the first half and the outcome of Friday's games will determine whether there will be a roll-off match for the winner's cup.

The Baptists set out to win all three games and clinch their lead. They won the first two games handily but got a shock in the third when the Jrs. ran wild. They bowled their best game of the season and rolled up a score of 794.

On Friday evening, February 20, the Lutherans defeated the Methodist Srs. by winning two of the three games.

FASHION SHOW

to a wonderful advantage. Several of the girls sat down at the tables arranged on the stage and in the "After the Opera" scene they were entertained with solo dances by Emily Titus, Betty Hartley, Katherine Jane Miller, Virginia Ohl and with songs and acts in which the principals were Marion Henry, Ella Ross, Beulah Chalfant, Helen Aiken, Cora Messec and Virginia Burgstresser as the Black-face. Too much cannot be said of the cleverness of these acts and one need only see them to understand.

The spectators were just sitting with mouths and eyes wide open when the "Bridal March" commenced and a charming bridal party appeared. The gowns as well as the modeling of them captivated the audience as a whole. The part of the bride was taken by Katherine Irwin and she was a truly beautiful one.

The last scene was an Indian camp fire, where Kathleen Herron, as the Indian was just caught in the act of stabbing herself, by some Girl Scouts. They bandaged a wound and as the rest of the scouts all assembled on the stage and sang their "Good-night Song," the curtain fell on one of the very best productions ever staged in Narberth.
